

Katelin Reinert Bio

Piano Teacher

Katelin is an Iowa native who moved to Chicago to earn her Bachelor of Music degree in music composition from Columbia College Chicago. While in college she performed piano and melodica with the New Music Ensemble. Katelin has over 14 years of experience playing piano, and has been playing flute since the 5th grade. Additionally, Katelin loves learning new instruments such as the Irish tinwhistle, ocarina and pan pipes. She is excited to share her passion for music composition and performance with her students.
